THIS MONTH WE WILL GATHER VIA ZOOM
MEETING AT 6:00 PM

JEF GUNN,
PACIFIC NORTHWEST
ARTIST WILL BE TALKING ON HIS PROCESS

Jef Gunn is a Seattle native who has moved around a bit. When he moved back to Seattle in the '80's he moved back for the rain - I don't think he was joking when he mentioned that in his bio.

He studied drawing and painting in California in the '70's and held residencies in Barcelona and Paris in the '80's. He has studied Asian art and began using encaustic in '85.

He is active in both national and local level artist communities—curating shows and participating in group exhibits. He has taught painting and drawing in Seattle and Portland since the mid '90's. In 2013, he was nominated for the Northwest Artist's Award.

He currently teaches classes and workshops at the Oregon Society of Artists—in such topics as intermediate oil painting, studio painting, and his latest winter plein air painting workshop. He also offers personal coaching.
